The primary objective of Civil Minded is to increase the connectivity of the extensive bike path network in the City of Santa Clarita by linking the two present bike paths underneath the Newhall Ranch Road Bridge. Civil Minded will develop cost-effective and environmentally conscious solutions in order to create a safe and effective bike path, as well as an associated retaining wall.